

Calling All Southern California BUSINESSES

For a Community Service Project

Art & Creativity for Healing, a nonprofit organization located in Laguna Hills is seeking business volunteers to contribute new art supplies or cash donations for 1,000 “Healing Art Boxes” to be delivered to underprivileged children this year.

A “Healing Art Box” is a special shoebox filled with 10 different art supplies distributed to a child or teen 6-18 years old experiencing hardship such as death of a loved one, divorce in the family, numerous deployments in a military family, chronic illness or the stress of economic hardship. Through drawing, painting and creative expression these children can say things they often have no words for.

This is a great opportunity for your employees to help children in need. Volunteers are also needed to deliver these “Healing Art Boxes” to the children.

Here are a few sites where the boxes will be delivered:

- American Family Housing Shelter
(homeless children)
- Boys & Girls Club Stanton
(economically disadvantaged children)
- Camp Pendleton
(children of the deployed)
- CHOC Hospital
(children in long term care and their siblings)
- Laura’s House Shelter
(Family Shelter)
- OC Rescue Mission
(homeless children)
- Orangewood Children and Family Center
(homeless children)
- Someone Cares Soup Kitchen
(homeless children)
- Thomas House Shelter
(homeless children)
- Western Youth Services
(economically disadvantaged children)

$20 buys a Healing Art Box for one hurting child!
